Accomplishments:

Kathleen Wareham is a full-time, professional neutral who has over 40 years of practical experience in litigation and conflict resolution involving personal injury (wrongful death, premises liability, auto accidents, product liability, medical malpractice, etc.), civil rights, employment, government & public agency, probate, guardianship, elder law and trust matters.

Ms. Wareham is known for her keen and insightful interpersonal skills, particularly helpful with difficult and multi-party cases. Clients describe her as tenacious, creative, well-prepared and attentive to the concerns of all stakeholders in mediation. She was certified as a mediator through the University of Washington School of Law in 2001, while a partner at MacDonald Hoague & Bayless in Seattle. Her litigation practice, guardian ad litem/settlement GAL experience, and knowledge of public agency law and process, enhance her skills as a professional neutral. Kathleen Wareham is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

In addition to being a frequent speaker and trainer on a variety of mediation topics at legal education seminars, Kathleen Wareham is particularly known for her interest in and study of ethical issues that arise in mediation. She authored the “Washington Mediation Ethics” chapter of the WSBA Legal Ethics Deskbook (2020) and has given many presentations to mediators and mediation advocates on mediation ethics.
